Good morning, ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to flight 412 to Lisbon. This is your pilot, John Barnes, speaking. We have completed today's take-off, so you may undo your seatbelts if you wish. Please take a minute to watch our flight attendants, who are currently standing in the aisle pointing out the location of all the emergency exits. During the flight, please make sure that all of your hand luggage is in the overhead lockers and that your food trays remain in the upright position if you are not actually eating. For your information, your life jackets are stored under your seats. In an emergency, oxygen masks will fall automatically from a compartment above your heads. We wish you a pleasant journey.
